A Straightforward Business.

Making a bld for popular patronage needs no diplomacy, finesse or sharpness in its management. Plain, clean, honest methods are what the public tie to.

These methods you will find in force here at all times. We attribute our success in a great measure to their practice.

We are here to serve you faithfully; want this store to be pointed out and spoken of as the place where all classes of the community may come and feel that they are being dealt with in absolute fairness.

All ready for the Spring business now; got a store full of bright, new merchandise to tell you about.

A Lace Curtain Event.

That's what we name it; that's what it is.
It's an event of money-saving impore ance to you. It's the one time in the round year when we put our Lace Curtain stock on a very narrow margin of profit and give you a benefit which you always appreciate. We don't make much money, but we sell more curtains and it is a good advertisement for the department. The choicest things will go first, of course; they always do in a sale of this kind. lower than you can buy elsewhere, we include with all our lace curtains a fivefoot pole, in ash, walnut or cherry, with all the trimmings, for which we make no charge.

It is Umbrella Weather Now.

Every day in the week, every hour in the day. April has a way of catching one out in the wet—no umbrella!

Here is a handy one you can carry, rain or shine. It is a tight roll, neat appearing affair, no bulkier than a cane, with silk top or half and balf, from 98 cents to $3.50 and a half dozen prices between.

We have just bought 200 Twilled Gloria Silk Umbrellas, with fine Dresden hardles, mourning handles and numerous other kinds of handles. These are well worth $1.50 apiece. We will close them out at $1.

According to the laws all State and city licenses are due and psyable on or before the first day of May in each fiscal year. It was learned yesterday from the commissioner of the revenue that comparatively few business men have taken cut licenses for conducting business; hence they are violating the law and liable for fine for each day they continue their business without the The Banks Closed at Noon.

The Banks Closed at Noon.
Yesterday being the first day under the recent act of the leg.slature for the banks to give a half holiday on Saturdays to their employes, all the banking institutions in the city closed their doors at noon, and the weary clerks were allowed to take a rest. Nearly everybody understood that the change was to take place and bank paper was generally attended to before the closing hour. The wholesale houses in the city have also adopted the half holiday have also adopted the half holiday

Baseball and Foot Race.

The game of baseball yesterday affer noon between the Union Star and the N. & W. baseball clubs at Athletic Park, resulted in a victory for the N. & W's., the score being N. & W. 13, Union Stars 5. The batteries were Martin and Meade for the N. & W., and Turner and Monyhan for the Union Stars. Both teams played good ball but the battery work of the N. & W's. was above the average. The mile foot race, which took place during the game on the grounds, for a medal offered by H. P. Kirk to bows in the auditor's office, was won by Willie Reiner, R. L. Ludwig taking second prize. second prize.

Young Ladles Debate. Phere was a debate at Virginia College Friday night by members of Miss Ethridge's class in English. The question wav, "Resolved, That America is about to produce another Shakespere." The affirmative was represented by Miss Irone Wright, of Colorado, and Miss Marie Morris, of North Carolina, and the negative by Miss Estelle Siewart, of Georgia, and Miss Blanche Butt, of Mississippi. The judges were Judge Robertson, L. H.
Cocke and W. A. Glasgow, who gave the decision to the affirmatives. Misses Catherine Acreford, Syla Ball and Osie
Barrett added much to the entertainment by their vocal selections, as did Miss Sadie Booth by an instrumental

Rev. Mr. Smith's Departure.

Rev. Mr. Smith's Departure.

Rev. Hay Watson Smith, the supply pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church for the past eight months, left yesterday for Greensboro, N. C., to spend a few weeks with his parents. He will then go to Buckingham county to proach at the slate mines. Many of the members of Mr. Smith's congregation were at the depot to see him off. All expressed their regrets that he should leave so soon after having completely won his way to the hearts of the people. Mr. Smith is a most promising young minister, and will doubtless do much good in the work of the Master. It is stated that he has two years in the seminary yet, but notwithstanding that fact has had a number of calls from important charges, which he did not accent. portant charges, which he did not ac-

A Hundred Years Ago

Every gentleman wore a cue and powdered his hair. A gentleman bowing to a lady always scraped his foot on the ground. Imprisonment for debt was a common practice. Two stage coaches bore all the travel between New York and Boston and six days were required for the journey, Twenty days were required for a letter to go from New York to Charleston by land. Virginia contained a fifth of the population of the whole country. The Mississippi Valley was not so well-known as the heart of Africa now is. The church collection was taken in a bag at the end of a pole with a bell attached to arouse sleepy contributors. Dances in Philadelphia were given every two weeks, but young men under 20 and girls under 18 were not admitted. Editors begged their subscribers to pay up; if they had no money to send in wood, wool, cheese, corn or pork. All the population of a village assembled at the inn on the "post day" to hear the news. Quinine was unknown; when a man hai agne fits he took Peruvian bark and whiskey. Vaccination had not become popular and smallpox was an every-day disease. Dry goods were designated as men's stuffs or woman's stuffs. A man who jeered at the preacher or criticised the sermon was fined. A horseman who galloped on the streets was fined four shillings, Books were expensive; "The Lives of the Poets" cost $15. There was only one hat factory and that made cocked hats. REMEDY FOR POTATO BUGS. A Norfolk and Western Man Makes a railroad term, on the potato department of said garden.

A well-known employe of the Norfolk and Western offices has (or had) quite a promising prospect for a garden until a day or so ago, when the inevitable Cororado beetle "put in a claim." to use a railroad term, on the potato department of said garden.

The proprietor, who is a deep thinker, meditated thoughsfully, calculating carefully whether it would be best to get the Dutchman's preparation and feed it to the bugs individually, extract their teeth or give them Paris Green. The latter process, while quicker than the former, way, he considered, dangerous to his neighbors and he began to feel himself in a quandary, when a bright idea came into his head and before he would give it time to cool he carried it into execution by pulling up all the potato plans and throwing them with the bugs attached into the street. He instantly told "one of the boys" bout it, remarking he was afraid the bugs would attack his tomatoes and early which were of more value than the batters. With the limits made, in the profit of rails oad men, the "boys" in the office refrain from saying anything about this mode, farming to the embryo gafdener, and the same article (modesty) forbids us n'entioning the gentleman's riame.
